

Get extra cash help for you and your family:

Apply now for the Scottish Child Payment

WHAT IS IT?

The Scottish Child Payment is a payment from the Social Security Scotland of £80 every four weeks for each eligible child aged under 6. For children aged between 6 and 16, you may be eligible for a bridging payment.

WHO CAN GET IT?

You can apply if you live in Scotland whether you are in work or not. You may be eligible if you are the parent or carer of the child and get certain benefits or tax credits.*

* Universal Credit (UC), Income Support, Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance, Income-related Employment and Support Allowance, Pension Credit, Housing Benefit, Child Tax Credit (CTC) and Working Tax Credit. You don't have to be getting one of these if you are under 18, or are aged 18 or 19 and are dependent on someone like a parent or carer who is claiming benefits or tax credits for you.

HOW TO APPLY

Visit mygov.scot/scottish-child-payment to apply online, or call Social Security Scotland's freephone helpline on to apply over the phone or to get a paper application form.

 0800 182 2222

More advice and information can be provided by Citizens Advice Scotland. You can visit

 citizensadvice.org.uk/scotland

or call them for free on

 0800 028 1456